

WHITE MEN WILL RULE IN MURRAY

Sentiment Among Business Men and People Is That Undesirable Aliens Must Go.

ONLY ONE DISTURBANCE

AUTHORITIES SAY THEY HAVE SITUATION WELL IN HAND.

At midnight the situation in Murray was quiet. There was only one disturbance of account during the day, although there were a lot of "demonstrations" and some excitement was caused when a man from one of the plants became an object of attack in State street. The man was set upon and beaten, but was seriously injured. The strikers dispersed at the approach of the officers. Meanwhile, the sentiment of the business in Murray is that if the company carries out its plan of eliminating the foreign element it will be better for the town. If the company does not hire these men again, a necessity they must go away, and Murray will be rid of them. Murray's people generally are taking the same stand as the people who are building the new city of Tooele. They favor a white man's town. It is a fact, however, that few of them care to express themselves or to authorize the use of their names for they fear public attention. They serve only to incite the hostility of the aliens against themselves, and result in possible riot.

The officers of Murray have kept the situation well in hand. There has been no more or less drinking, but the coming of crowds has not been permitted. The system of "move on" is employed when there appears to be a tendency to mobbing, and it has proved effective.

Stabbing Affray Aired.

The three-act fight that was enacted in the Greek colony of Murray Wednesday night was aired in Justice C. H. Hanks' court yesterday afternoon. After all the evidence was in, Justice Hanks gave his verdict. He found that each of the three men, Elmer Bacon and Steve Elmer, were assessed $20 each. Sam Paul, son of those who mixed in the melee, was taken back to jail, his hearing to come up Friday afternoon. Other cases were on the docket yesterday afternoon, and were continued until Friday and Saturday. Stephen L. Richards appeared in behalf of the Greeks. The foreigners who were stabbed are all doing fairly well at the hospital at Murray. The case of Martin Dragubratovich is considered the most serious, as he was stabbed in the back, and was beaten and kicked into insensibility. The other two injured men, Paul Barker and Carl Evansson, who also received stab wounds, are able to sit up. The fight started in a little argument which took place at Elmer's house in the Greek colony. From the evidence offered in court yesterday, it appeared that everyone in the crowd, which was placed at about twenty-five, used knives extensively. All fines were paid yesterday. The arrests were made by Deputy Marshal Sam Whitte.

The Golden Threshold

Rendition of Song Cycle Is Artistic Affair

The magnificent imagery of the Orient, expressed in lines of faultless beauty and set to music of surpassing sweetness, is "The Golden Threshold," the poems of which are the pen of Sarojini Naidu, and the exquisite music fitted to each poem as a perfect complement is composed by Liza Lehmann. For the first time the splendid work was heard by the Salt Lake audience last evening, when the choir of the First Congregational church presented the song cycle in a concert.

Nothing in the line of a musical cycle is comparable to it, except, perhaps, the better known though no more perfect work, "The Persian Garden," by the same composer. The golden flow of Oriental phrases, and all the beauty of the lush, laden night are held in the rich, full melodies with which the poems are embellished and interpreted. One song, "Indian Dancers," of those sung last night serves well to show of what nature the poems are, and is itself descriptive of the music.

Indian Dancers.

"The music sighs and slumbers,
It stirs and sleeps again * * *
Hush! it wakes and heaves in murmurs,
Like a woman's heart in pain.
Now it laughs and calls and coaxes,
Like a bright and wind-blown lily.
Now it pants with sudden longing,
Now it soars with spirit delight,
Like bright and wind-blown lilies,
The dancers away and shine,
Swift in a rhythmic circle,
Soft in a rhythmic line."

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Bell Crain Becomes Bride of Homer Reed.

The marriage of Miss Bell V. Crain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crain, to Homer Reed was solemnized at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 276 Wall street, the Rev. F. H. Short officiating.

CACNDOR OF THE MODEST SCOT.

(The Circle.)
When Dr. Kloppeck, the editor of the Christian Herald, was congratulated upon the honor done him when the emperor of Japan bestowed upon him the order of the Rising Sun, he laughed and said: "Yes, my new decoration makes me feel very proud. I feel as proud, in fact, as a Highland chieftain, and no one could be prouder than that."

A STEADY FLOW.

(Everybody's.)
A truly eloquent parson had been preaching for an hour or so on the immortality of the soul.

"I looked at the mountains," he declared, "and could not help thinking, 'Beautiful as you are, you will be destroyed, while my soul will not.' I gazed upon the ocean and said, 'Mighty as you are, you will eventually dry up, but not I.'"

"What have ye?" said the man. "Step away and let me to it."

"So she stepped away and let him to it, and he looked at it again.

"Ah," said he with a laugh (for his father was dead), "it is a picture of my father."

"Step away," said she, "and let me see if it is no eyes at all. I have, what have you with pictures of your father?"

So he stepped away and let her to it, and she looked at it again.

"An ugly, red-headed woman it is," said she. "You had a lover before me," and she was very angry.

"Sure we'll leave it to the priest," said he.

And when the priest passed by they called him in and said, "Father, tell us what it is that this picture is about. I say it is my father, who is dead."

"I never saw," said the woman.

"Step away," said the priest, with authority, "and let me to it."

So they stepped away and let the priest to it, and he looked at it.

"Sure, neither you nor the woman was right. What eyes have ye? It is a picture of a holy father. I will take it to adorn the church."

Their little limbs gleam like amber. Thro' their veils of golden gauze, As they glide and bend and beckon, As they wheel and wind and pause. The voices of lutes and cymbals Fall on the falling breeze, And the midnight's soul grows weary With the scent of the champagne trees; But the subtle feet of the dancers, In a long, melodious chain, Wake in the breast of lovers Love's ecstasy and pain."

Hard to Pick Favorites.

The four singers, M. J. Brines, Mrs. A. S. Peters, Miss Edna Cohn and Fred Smith, each had numerous solo parts, and were heard as well in duets, trios and quartets. The closing number, "At the Threshold," in which the full quartet was heard, was in magnificence of expression and splendid rendering, perhaps the best of all, although it would be hard to pick favorites where all were of such high excellence.

The first half of the program was made up of four solos, in which the artists were heard in other lines, and a quartet, "Come, Fill the Cup," from "The Persian Garden." Mrs. Brines was the accompanist of the evening and filled her role with such satisfaction that her work was lauded in every respect. The difficult interpretative passages in the music were particularly noteworthy for the manner in which they were made to add to the beauty of the entire program.

PIANO RECITAL.

Students of L. D. S. Swell Fund for Fine Musical Instrument.

A piano recital was given in Barratt hall yesterday to the students of the L. D. S. university, to celebrate the purchase of their Steinway grand piano. Besides paying for the instrument, the students have, during the last two years, bought $1,000 worth of band instruments.

Tracy Y. Cannon gave a brief history of the purchase of the piano. The piano, he illustrated his talk by selections from Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Grieg and Brahms.

BISHOP CONSECRATED.

Philadelphia, May 6.—In the presence of many Chicago clergy and laymen from different parts of the country, the Rev. Nathan Seymour Thomas was today consecrated first bishop of the new Protestant Episcopal diocese of Wyoming. The church of the Holy Apostles, of which he was rector, Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, presiding bishop of the church in this country, was the consecrator. The consecration sermon was preached by Bishop Talbot of central Pennsylvania. The offering at the services will be devoted to the work of the missionary district of Wyoming.

DROP OF 57 DEGREES.

Norfolk, Neb., May 6.—The temperature dropped 57 degrees in twelve hours, falling from 58 yesterday afternoon to 29 this morning. Yesterday's intense heat, by far the hottest of the year, was followed last night by the severest frost yet known in Nebraska ever experienced. The wind blew sixty miles an hour.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Disease of the Nerves Not of the Stomach—Correct Home Treatment.

Nervous dyspepsia, unlike other forms of indigestion, is a disease of the nerves and it must be treated by strengthening the nerves and the use of a good tonic, such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, together with a generous and nourishing diet, is the correct home treatment.

After suffering with nervous indigestion for over two years Mrs. George P. Martin, of No. 16 Admiral street, New Haven, Conn., tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She tells of the great benefit she received as follows:

"Following a severe run-down condition I began to suffer with nervous indigestion. Food distressed me so much that it was with difficulty I could drink water and I had to live on milk almost entirely. I lost in weight and strength. I was so nervous that I could not bear to have any one visit me. I could not sleep nights or if I did I would wake up suddenly with a startled feeling. Whenever I ate much my stomach would bloat and there would be gas on it. Often times I had to vomit to get relief. On going up stairs or in over-working I was certain to have palpitation of the heart. I had dull, sick headaches which lasted for two or three days. During these attacks I was unable to do my housework. I felt sick all over and wanted to be undisturbed."

"The doctor's medicine failed to help me after a trial of over three months. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and began using them. I noticed a difference after I had taken only a few boxes and was cured when I had given the pills a good trial. My cure has been permanent but I keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand to use as a tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in cases of acid stomach, and in the treatment of over-sensitive stomachs in which the slightest irritation causes painful gnawing or burning sensations. This condition is common among growing girls.

Sufferers from dyspepsia in any form, who have found their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse while using ordinary remedies, would do well to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. per box; six boxes, $2.50. A diet book will be sent free, on application to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR STEEL

Negotiations for Material for Newhouse Hotel Under Way—Architect to Be Here Next Week.

Negotiations are being carried on by the Newhouse Hotel company and the Thompson-Starratt company, the contractors who are to build the new hotel, looking for the purchase of the material for the building of the new structure. Bids for the purchase of the steel are being received and the steel will probably be purchased next week. The preliminary work is finished.

Henry Ives Cobb, the celebrated New York architect, who is in Salt Lake early next week to go over the plans with the executive committee of the hotel company. Several minor changes in the plans will be made, but it is probable that the original plans for the exterior of the building will be approved.

Laurelhurst Acres

The Homeland on the Hill

Lots in this subdivision provide an investment absolutely sure of profit on a very large scale, and as safe as a national bank deposit. It is inviting to the investor of large or small means, as its values are constantly rising.

You can have a fine country home, and still be close enough to the city to enjoy its advantages. LAURELHURST is only five minutes' walk from the car line now, and you are assured that in the near future the Emigration Canyon railway will be extended from Ninth South down Twenty-third East, past this desirable property.

The soil of LAURELHURST is a rich, dark, sandy loam, excellent for the cultivation of all kinds of fruits and vegetables. The company has clear titles to the land, and owns enough water to supply all needs for all time to come. This information may be verified at the offices of the Salt Lake Security & Trust company.

If you will visit LAURELHURST you will be convinced that there is no other acreage near Salt Lake that can compare with it for location, soil, water, etc., nor for inducement to buy either for a home spot or for investment.
